

City of Vienna Mayor and Council met in Council Chambers at City Hall on Monday February 22, 2010. Mayor Emerson Lundy called the meeting to order at 6 p.m. Members present were Brenda Gramm, Eddie Daniels, Walter Brown. Daniels gave invocation and everyone recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Gramm made motion to accept agenda, Daniels seconded and all agreed. Brown made motion to accept minutes from previous meeting, Gramm seconded and all approved minutes.

City Clerk, Gail Bembry was not at meeting, but mayor and council looked over report that she had submitted. Mayor Lundy stated that he had contacted county about contributing cost of labor to sidewalk project, but was told it was not in their budget. Lundy also met with Housing Authority and is hopeful that issues with this board have been resolved. He also reminded council members to turn in forms for GMA Convention Registration.

Beth English was not at meeting to give legislative report.

Mayor Lundy asked that Willie Davis be reappointed to Housing Authority Board, since Director of Housing Authority felt that he was not appointed properly. City Attorney Verlin Jones stated that Mr. Davis had been appointed according to policy, but that it would be acceptable for him to be reappointed. Mayor Lundy made appointment of Willie Davis to Housing Authority Board. Daniels made motion of ratification of Lundy's appointment to board, Gramm seconded and all agreed. Mayor asked that Council Meeting be changed to 7:00 p.m. due to conflicting meeting times. Gramm made motion to change meeting time to 7 p.m., Daniels seconded and it was unanimously approved. Jones asked that City Clerk notify legal organ in writing of time change.

Gramm advised that she would be going to Washington on Wednesday. Walter Brown asked for update on Water Park. Lundy stated that at a meeting the previous week that Mr. Ashford had assured that the park would be coming to Vienna.

With no other business to come before council, meeting was adjourned.
